Attack Outpost Stronghold of the Trent Defenses

HIGH PASSES

Bad Weather Retards Advance—Foe's Aeros
Active

Rome, June 30.—Notwithstanding heavy reinforcements for the Austrians in the Trentino, the Italians have penetrated Austrian territory to within six miles of Riva, a stronghold at the head of Lake Garda. King Victor Emmanuel's forces are attacking Riva, which is directly related to the problem of the Trent defenses further east. This news is contained in advices from Milan.

The terrain negotiated by the Italians is exceedingly rugged. They proceeded through the Nota Vil passes, about 5,000 feet high; descended the scarp of the Carone mountains, more than 8,000 feet high, entered the Ledro valley and arrived at the Ponale river, which runs an arrowy course from Lake Ledro to Lake Garda, a distance of five miles, making a fall of more than 1,300 feet. There are numerous waterfalls along this stream which are utilized for electric power for Riva and for military purposes.

It is reported that the Italians reached a point near Bezzecca, the scene of a Garibaldian victory of the Austrians in 1866. They occupied part of a historic road out in the living rock in 1861 which connects Brescia, Storo and Riva.

On the heights dominating this road, the Austrians have constructed formidable defenses, the strongest being on Rocchetta and Oro peaks, some 5,000 feet high.

The latest official statement by the war office says that in the Carnia mountain artillery has been transported with great difficulty to a summit and effectively used against the enemy's position on the opposite side of Val Piccolo.

Bad weather continues in the whole theatre of operations. The Austrian aeroplanes are very active, bombarding positions recently taken by the Italians, but with slight results.

Premier Salandra has gone to the front to confer with the king and Chief of Staff Cadorna. This visit is evidently required by matters of greatest importance, which under the constitution require the sanction of the king himself instead of the viceroy. Important developments, therefore, are expected at an early date.

Pope Benedict, through the master of the sacred palace of the Vatican, has formally approved a prayer both for private and public use imploring the divine blessing for the arms of Italy. This prayer was offered up for the first time on Sunday at a solemn national service in the Gesù church, Rome, attended by several cardinals, including Cardinal Vice-Pope, who rules over the papal diocese of Rome.

After reciting that Italy is waging war in a righteous cause for the safety of her natural boundaries and the redemption of her sons, and invoking divine favor upon Italy on land and sea, the prayer concludes as follows:

"Give, O Jesus, to the king, his generals and statesmen those lights and those graces they need in this decisive hour for our Italy. Surround with special comfort, we beseech Thee, the families who have dear ones in our army and navy. Grant us to be worthy instruments of religious and civil charity in this our grievous national crisis, and enable Italy, issuing stronger and greater in victory, to hail speedily the desired day of peace."

TAKE SCUTARI AGAIN.

Montenegrin Army Occupies Albanian Largest City.

Rome, June 30.—Montenegrin troops have occupied Scutari, the largest city of Albania.

[During the first Balkan war the Montenegrins captured Scutari, but in the following peace negotiations the coalition of European powers decreed that the city should be returned to Albania.]

BRITISH GOVT. NOT TO COERCE LABOR

Long So Declares in Introducing Registration Bill in Parliament—Measure Designed to Index Labor Resources.

London, June 30.—Walter Hume Long, president of the local government board, yesterday introduced in the House of Commons a bill for the compilation of a national register, the object of which, he explained, was not to coerce labor, but to secure complete information regarding the resources of the country and to enable them to be satisfactorily organized. The measure seeks to classify all persons below the age of 65 and to ascertain the present occupation and direction wherein service can be rendered by each.

Introducing the bill, Mr. Long said in justification for national legislation that it was the paramount duty of all to bring to the help of the state the organized service of every class and community. The measure, he said, was designed to provide the machinery which could procure the maximum output at a minimum cost. There would be a compulsory registration of the people of the country, both male and female, between the ages of 15 and 65, and everyone would be asked to tell his age and present employment and to volunteer for any special form of employment other than that on which he actually was engaged. Mr. Long believed that such legislation would enable the government to take full advantage of the service of everybody, to the benefit of the state.

TWIRLING DUEL GALLAGHER'S

Richmond A. A. Shut Out
Barre A. C. in Interesting Game

VISITING PITCHER
STRONG IN PINCHES

Tomasi Also Pitched a Good Game for the Home Team

Late yesterday afternoon at the Granite City trotting park the Barre Athletic club were defeated at baseball by the Richmond Athletic association of Richmond by a score of 3 to 0. It was not until the seventh inning that the visitors were able to score at all and then they sent in their first two runs. Both the pitchers were working with good effect during the first of the game but both weakened toward the end. A crowd numbering about 300 were present to witness the defeat of the Barre boys.

With the score 3 to 0, and the home team up for the last time for a chance to win, the interest was really very highly pitched. Johnson was the first man up, and he secured a pass on balls. Tomasi hit safely, sending him down to second. Smith negotiated for a pass on balls. The bases were filled and a hit was wanted in the worst way. With Gallagher walking two men and allowing one hit and not a single man down the chances looked good. But alas, Marchesi and G. Fowlie both up and fanned. Pratt, who had the game left to him, was the last hitter on the list and after fouling several times he followed the example set by the two batters before him and struck out.

Through the game Gallagher pitched consistent ball and although he walked several men they could not steal or in any way manage to get around the bases. His delivery being from his left hand, it fooled the first two runners that were able to get on bases. Jones got first on an error in the first inning. He got too far off and that was not a great way either. A snappy throw caught him and he was easily tagged out between first and second. In the same way Pratt was caught in the third inning and this time Gallagher himself tagged him out. Only three hits were made against the Richmond pitcher and these were all easy singles. Seventeen strikeouts is not a bad showing along with the rest.

His opposing man, who was Tomasi, was very strong in the early stages of the game, all his victims being retired in good order up to the seventh inning. In this part of the play a little hard luck more than good baseball was responsible for the scores at this time.

The Richmond team made their scores in the following manner: Grow was safe at first after Jones dropped a fly. J. Berry walked into a pitched ball and was given first, sending Grow to second. Gallagher hit a little grounder out to Tomasi, who got Grow on home. Dower, who had fanned the only two times up before, hit a fly next to the first base line and the two runners scored. The next two men were retired with ease by Tomasi.

After two men were out in the ninth inning Gallagher batted out a two-bagger and when Dower sent the ball a little over first base he scored.

Notes.
The Barre A. C. will next meet the Standish club from Dorchester, Mass., as an opponent. The game will be played Saturday at the trotting park.

Fouls were exceedingly numerous, at least 15 different batted balls going into the grandstand.

Gilbert, who was booked for yesterday's game, will not appear until next Saturday.

Gallagher pulled out of a deep hole when he retired three men in succession with three men on bases.

AMERICA'S TRADE BALANCE DECLINES

Decrease of $10,000,000 for Week Due to Lessened Exports of Wheat and Cotton.

Washington, June 30.—Exports for the week ending June 29 fell to $41,000,000, and the trade balance in favor of the United States dropped $10,000,000 to $9,000,000 for the week, the smallest in months. Of the decrease in the balance $2,000,000 was due to increased imports and $8,000,000 to decreased exports. Officials here have no detailed information regarding the decrease in exports, but the presumption is it was due to reduced exports of wheat and cotton.

MEXICANS AT CORNISH.

They Come to Present Their Case to President Wilson.

Cornish, June 30.—Two Mexicans describing themselves as emissaries from General Felipe Angeles and General Raoul Madero arrived here yesterday with the purpose of arranging if possible to have President Wilson give an audience to Angeles. The latter, they said, would come here on an hour's notice if the president was willing, as he wished to explain the present situation in Mexico.

DYNAMITE TRIAL OCT. 4.

Case of Schmidt and Caplan Postponed at Los Angeles from Sept. 1.

Los Angeles, Calif., June 30.—Matthew A. Schmidt and David Caplan will be brought to trial Oct. 4, on charges of murder resulting from the destruction of the Los Angeles Times building by dynamite Oct. 1, 1910, according to a ruling made here Monday in the superior court. The change of the trial date from Sept. 1 was granted after attorneys for the defense had sought and received a delay in bringing forward further arguments for the quashing of the indictments against the two men.

IN BOSTON MARKETS.

Butter Receipts Larger Than the Demand—Hennery Eggs Scarce and Firm.

Boston, June 30.—There has been a further advance of about a cent a pound in cheese in the primary markets, putting prices back within one-half cent a pound of the highest of the season; this development is responsible for a firmer tendency in local prices, but as buyers are not anticipating their needs, dealers have some trouble in securing any advance over last week's quotations. The butter market is beginning to get top-heavy; receipts continue more than ample for the demand, which is not as good as it has been, as a weaker trend in the New York market tends to make buyers very cautious. Hennery eggs are scarce and firm, but the other grades are plenty enough and no more than steady in price.

Jobbing quotations:

HEAVY BEEFSTOCK FIRM.

Light Supply of Choice Cattle at Brighton—Watertown Yards Reopened.

Brighton, Mass., June 30.—Choice, heavy cattle were in light supply at Brighton market yesterday, and prices held up well. Poor stock, canners, etc., were easier. Hogs and medium grade calves declined.

The Watertown yards were opened yesterday morning, under similar restrictions to those in force at Brighton. Livestock may be teamed or driven from thence to the abattoir, or to the Brighton stockyards for sale.

Heavy cattle were quoted at 8c for best stock, but most of the arrivals sold for less. Possibly 7@7½c would include the bulk of the best offerings, with good cattle at 6½@7c and light cattle at 5½@6c.

Some of the fancy heifers sold at 7c and better, but tops for cows generally were 6@6½c. Good cows brought 5@5½c and ordinary cows 4½@5c. Canners were easier at 3½@4c.

One fancy bull sold at 8c. He weighed 1,500 pounds and was a full-blooded Devon. Other fancy stocks sold at 7@7½c, with good bulls at 6@6½c and ordinary at 5@5½c.

Calves were easier for medium stock, which was in over supply. Some calves sold at 9½c, but the regular quotation for best run was 8@8½c, with mixed lots at 7@7½c and grassers at 5@6c.

Hogs were somewhat easier, and lower prices were quoted late in the afternoon. Earlier some fancy sold at 8.20c, but later the regular quotation for best lots was 8@8.15c, with rough lots at 7½@7¾c.

Sheep and lambs were in small supply, lambs selling at 8@9c, and sheep at 5@6c.

THE BAD GOOD OLD DAYS.

New Hampshire Labor Commissioner Describes Improvement.

Detroit, Mich., June 30.—"Industrial Progress in New England" and "Labor Conditions in the South," were among the subjects up for discussion yesterday at the convention here of the Association of Governmental Labor Officials of the United States and Canada. John S. B. Davis, labor commissioner of New Hampshire, told of the growth of industries in his territory, and M. L. Shipman, labor commissioner of North Carolina, discussed the labor situation in southern states.

In the course of his address, Mr. Davis compared the average working hours in the textile manufacturing business in former years with the present system. Prior to 1881, in one of the largest factories, the following schedule prevailed, he said: From Nov. 1 to 30: First shift at 4.30 a. m., work to begin as soon as the hands can see to work; March to November: Work before breakfast; Sept. 30 to March 20: Work continued

"Tenant labor in the South, taken as a whole, is not what may be called satisfactory," said Mr. Shipman. "The principal reason for this situation is the fact that the large supply of fresh land available makes the tenant farmer careless of fertilization and general improvement. Few farms in the South are cultivated to the full."

"It Makes Things Hum"—

"Mayo's for mine around the mill. I've smoked Mayo's right along; my dad did, too, before me. It's been a prime New England favorite ever since I can remember.

"What I like about Mayo's is you can smoke it all day long and get real pleasure out of it. With me, it steadies me down and makes things hum.

"I can't get the satisfying taste out of other tobaccos that I get from Mayo's—so I recommend Mayo's every time."

Mayo's Cut Plug
